

Board of Directors – Returning Board Member

Debbie Liu

- Manager at the Metropolitan Planning Council (MPC) who works on equitable community development in the Chicagoland area.
- Interests lie in equity in the built environment, health in all policies, social justice, anti-gentrification and anti-displacement.
- Received Master's of Public Health from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.
- Regularly wrangles her dog and toddler around the city

Board of Directors – Returning Board Member

Kevin Stanciel

- Works at the Regional Transportation Authority coordinating signage and technology projects with CTA, Metra and Pace.
- Has worked with the Openlands, City of Chicago Department of Environment and the Chicago Transit Authority, where he oversaw the initiation of the CTA's bike programs.
- Selected as a member of the Michael Reese 4th Ward Advisory Committee where he advocates for complete streets and biking in the Bronzeville Lakefront redevelopment.
- An ATA member since 1993, he became a board member in 2008 and was vice president of the board in 2015-2019. A resident of Bronzeville.

Board of Directors – Returning Board Member

Philippe Lunardelli

- Works at WellRight, a corporate wellness platform, where he serves as CFO.
- Has volunteered at the Lycee Francais de Chicago and served on the board of trustees for 6 years, in the finance, development and governance committees
- An ATA member since 2003, he became a board member in 2018 and was elected to treasurer in 2019.
- Born and raised in France, grew up walking, biking, and taking public transportation everywhere

Board of Directors – New Board Member

Betty Vandembosch

- Retired from a career in corporate and academic leadership, teaching, and consulting
- Member of the board of Adtalem Global Education, a leading healthcare educator, and an advisory board member of the University of Chicago Graham School
- Believes that formal and informal education can help Chicago become an even better place to walk, ride and take public transportation
- An avid year-round cyclist and she is hoping to bicycle on every continent and has two to go

Board of Directors – New Board Member

David Swedler

- Epidemiologist with the Chicago Department of Public Health
- Was an epidemiologist and research methodologist working on injury issues including motor vehicle safety, firearm violence, occupational injury, and overdose
- Research on motor vehicle safety has included the costs of crashes, vulnerable road users, young road users, and distracted driving
- Has a BS from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, an MPH from the University of Michigan, and a PhD from Johns Hopkins University

Board of Directors – New Board Member

Joel Schoenmeyer

- Currently the National Managing Director for Family Wealth at Fifth Third Bank
- Has spent most of his career in the field of trusts and estates, first as an attorney and then at three separate financial institutions
- Served on the Oak Park Transportation Commission from 2014 to 2017
- Received his BA in English from Michigan State University and his JD from the University of Michigan Law School

Board of Directors – New Board Member

Nic Eichenseer

- Vice President and Associate General Counsel for W.W. Grainger, Inc., where he also serves as the chief ethics and compliance officer
- Served as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Chicago, where he prosecuted cybercrime, public corruption, gang violence, fraud, drug cartels, and sex trafficking
- Previously, was Senior Counsel in the SEC's Division of Enforcement and, before that, a litigation associate at Skadden
- Has been an ATA member and Bike The Drive participant for years

