

NEW BOARD MEMBER

Kevin Irvine

- Senior Talent Acquisition Consultant, Individuals with Disabilities, at RUSH University Medical Center in Chicago.
- Previously served on Chicago Transit Authority's Board of Directors.
- Long-time transportation and disability advocate across the United States.

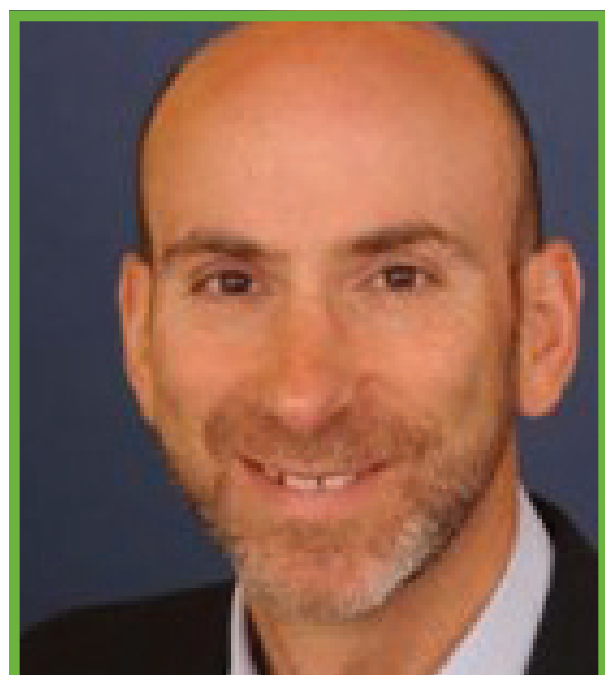

RETURNING BOARD MEMBERS

Julie Hubbard

- Chief Financial Officer at American Board of Medical Specialties.
- Background in both for-profit and non-profit finance and received an MBA from University of Chicago Booth School.
- Has participated in several Bike the Drive events and is a regular volunteer at the Lakeview Pantry.

Elliot Rossen

- Active Trans Board Member since 2011.
- Independent Strategic Brand Innovation Consultant.
- Chaired Active Transportation Alliance's Transit Committee, co-chaired the Policy and Advocacy Committee, and was on the Bike and Pedestrian Advocacy Committee.
- Member of Bike-Walk Highland Park and the Highland Park Transportation Advisory Group.

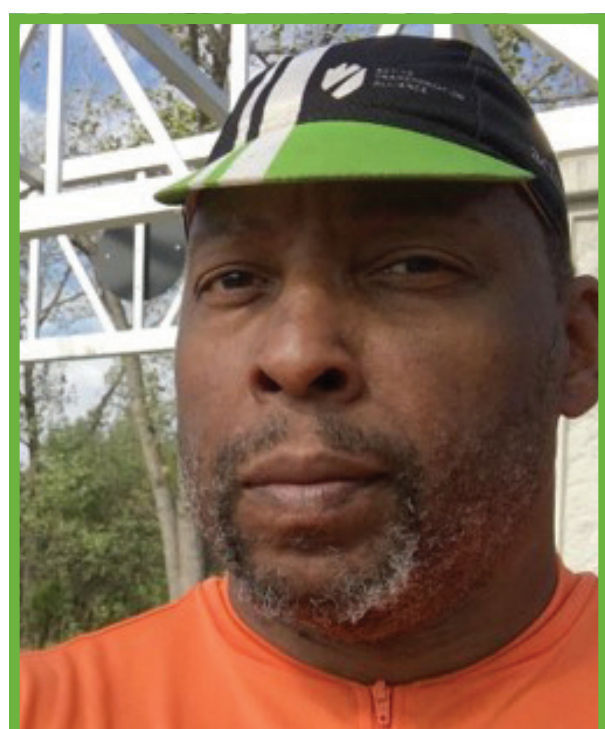

Rubani Shaw

- Active Trans Board Member since 2006 and current President of the Board.
- Works as a designer for design and innovation companies.
- Volunteers for local and neighborhood organizations that reflect his commitment to ecological, personal and urban health.

Emily Tapia-Lopez

- Active Trans Board Member since 2017.
- Director of Strategic Initiatives for HNTB, an architecture and civil engineering company.
- Has more than 14 years of planning, public engagement and communications experience.
- Holds Master's in Urban Planning from University of Illinois-Chicago.

Peter Taylor

- Active Trans Board Member since 2005.
- Systems Engineer for University of Chicago Biomedicine System, where he has worked since 1988.
- Member of Major Taylor Cycling Club Chicago, a group formed to promote bicycling among Chicago's African-American community.
- A founding member of Friends of the Major Taylor Trail, working to maintain the trail for all to use and advocating for south side cycling.

Lakeshia Wright

- Experienced UX Researcher, Strategist and City Planner.
- Holds Master of Urban Planning and Policy from University of Illinois at Chicago and BA in Geography from Northeastern Illinois University.
- Member of the American Institute of Certified Planners and holds a certificate in Geospatial Analysis and Visualization.
- Currently serves as co-chair of Board's Equity Committee.